Preface

CO-OPERATION—THE FOUNDATION OF WINSTON-SALEM

On July 6, 1415, John Hus, of Bohemia, a Province of Austria, was burned at the stake as the first Protestant martyr preceding the Reformation. His martyrdom, together with the persecution of the small band which followed him, bore the germ of a movement which culminated in migration. This migration was ultimately to be responsible for the initial settlement of Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Fleeing from Bohemia and Moravia to escape further religious persecution, John Hus's little band settled for a time in Saxony, Germany, under the protection and patronage of Count Zinzendorf. Again resistance to their desire for full religious liberty caused them to look toward the New World and in 1740 the "Moravians," as they are now called, settled in Pennsylvania.

SALEM—In January, 1753, a small party seeking an ideal location settled at the three forks of the Yadkin River, calling the region "Wachovia" to perpetuate the name of the beautiful estate of Count Zinzendorf left behind in Austria's sunny southland. Thirteen years later, in 1766, eight men, two of them Danes, two Germans, one an Englishman and the other three Moravians, commenced the first building in the Town of Salem. Here the Moravians made their permanent abode and when the visitor enters Winston-Salem, a tinge of Old World history meets his eye, not so much in architecture but in the names that legend the past. Here we find the MORAVIAN CHURCH and College, the ZINZENDORF HOTEL, the WACHOVIA Bank and Trust Company, with many others too numerous to mention.

What the Pilgrim Fathers were to New England, the Protestant Moravians were to this region. Each brought a strong desire for religious freedom. Each brought a desire for education. Both brought that courge and daring, that zeal and heroism which made possible the America of today.

The colony prospered from the beginning, for the Moravians, like the Pilgrim Fathers brought with them ideas and ideals founded on thrift, economy and community spirit. By co-operation the first church was built and co-operation proceeded to build the first school.

WINSTON—The prosperity of the colony began to attract others and about 1850 a small settlement was commencedon the fringe of Salem. This twin colony grew rapidly until in January 15, 1851, the Legislature passed an act naming it "Winston" in honor of Major Winston of the Revolutionary fame.

The two communities, Winston and Salem, continued to prosper together until May, 1913, when by a large majority in each municipality, it was voted to combine under the name of .'Winston-Salem"—The Twin-City.

THE TWIN CITY—Permeating the term "Twin-City" is the text of the Moravians "Unitas Fratrum" or "Unity of Brothers" which in modern phraseology may be lettered co-operation and this co-operation has been largely responsible for the growth and prosperity of the Industrial Metropolis of the Carolinas—Winston-Salem.

In commenting upon the care exercised by the early settlers in selecting this particular location, the United States Department of Agriculture, in a soil survey has the following to say:

> "Prior to the settlement of Forsyth County, a reconnaissance survey was made to determine the quality of the land, its physiography, drainage, etc. The natural conditions were considered ideal—Perhaps no other Colony in America was so systematic and thoroughly scientific in its investigation of the natural resources as the Colony of settlers who first occupied this section. The Colony was successful from the beginning."

In 1880 the combined population of both places was that of the size of the average village. From this village, Winston-Salem moved to the dominant position in the famous Piedmont Plateau of the Carolinas. Its industries, in 1909, turned out products valued at $18,240,000; while in 1929 the total output of its more than 100 plants was over $300,000,000, far outstripping any other city in the Piedmont area. The 1930 U. S. Census reveals a population of 75,272.

There are many factors responsible for the growth of Winston-Salem, both in population and industry. In the first place, it is the center of that part of North Carolina of which the late Franklin K. Lane said:

> "That section of the Carolinas stretching from a point about Asheville to a point about Goldsboro, is destined to become the greatest industrial area in the country because of its great industrial advantages and economics."

Putting the Out-of-the-way Business on the Main Street For a Few Dollars

The business that is up-stairs in some building or off the beaten trail can overcome its location—can put itself on the Main Street of Public Attention by advertising in the City Directory.

Your advertisement entitles you to be listed in heavy type under all of the classifications of your business in the new City Directory now being compiled. This makes your business STAND OUT. Thousands of people consult this buyers' guide every year.

Thus, for a very small sum you can be located on

The Main Street of your City Catalog

for a whole year.

(Total number of boxes 99)

All police officers have keys. To turn in alarm, break glass over key in front of box, unlock and open door, pull lever down and let go.

Remain at box to direct department to scene of fire. To turn in alarm by telephone, don't get excited. Take plenty of time, stating street and location between cross streets.

STREET DIRECTORY
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

Giving names of householders and denoting business places

NOTE—All streets and avenues are arranged in alphabetical order; the house numbers are arranged in numerical order, with names of occupants after each house.

—— Dash before name denotes that number is wanting.

Purpose of (*) star in front of name is to denote colored person or firm, but we assume no responsibility for its wrong use; errors often creep in.—Publishers.
